(Special to The Evening World.)

EXPOSITION PARK, PITTSBURG, July 9.—"Foxy Ned" Hanlon had his hammer out on his boys for getting beaten by "Old Brickyard" Kennedy yesterday and threatened all sorts of trouble if they failed to slaughter the Pirates in the third game of the series this afternoon.

The Gowanus band was weakened by the setting down of Tim Flood, who received a polite telegram from President Fullam this morning announcing his suspension until July 11 on charges preferred by "Bug" Holliday. "Dutch" Jordan was at the half way station therefore when play began and his Pittsburg friends were there to root for him. Old Rearing Bill had one of his good days yesterday, and the Trolleyites could not hit his speed with a shovel, let alone a bat. Hanlon tried all afternoon to get them to dump the ball between the box and first base, but the Bellaire "Vet" was up to all tricks and kept hugging the batters with the ball. Two hits were the sum total of the day's work at the bat by the visitors, and they were treated to a nice coat of whitewash.

Kennedy beat the entire Brooklyn outfit with the stick and on the bases, fanning his record with three hits and scoring a run. "Germany" Schmidt pitched a fair game, but the Champions landed on his pretzel slants effectively in two turns.

It was Garvin's turn to try to fool the leaders to-day, with Ritter at the receiving end. The little Binghamton wind paddler is winning golden opinion for the way he is going behind the bat day in and day out without a complaint and catching good ball. Hanlon is taking a long chance with only one backstop in harness, but if it comes to a pinch Jack Doyle is there to do the "big mitt and mask and give a good account of himself.

"Deacon" Phillip and Sam Leever were down on the card to serve up batters to the Trolleyites, and the teams lined up with about three thousand in the stands and a torrid sun overhead.

First Inning.

Strang waited while Leever handed up four wide ones. Sheppard's grand slam to Weaver advanced the Pirates to second. Dobbs was out, Ritchey to Weaver, Strang moving up to third. Doyle's torrid well was felled to first by Ritchey. No runs.

Beaumont Wagner's hard grounder was partially stopped by Dahlen, but "Bad Bill" could not recover it in time and Honus got a scratch hit. He was caught asleep off first on Garvin's quick throw to Doyle. No runs.

THE CROWD.

J. B. HAGGIN'S TRIUMPH
AS A BREEDER OF HORSES.

All the Winners at Brighton Were Bred Either at Elmendorf or Rancho Del Paso.

One of the most notable triumphs of the turf ever scored by a breeder went to J. B. Haggin yesterday. Each of the six winners at Brighton was bred either at the Elmendorf or the Rancho del Paso stud. The first named is in Kentucky. The second is located in California.

It is noteworthy also that all the horses "in the money" in the Realization—Africander, Golden Maxim and Savable—were bred by Mr. Haggin. Here is the breeding of yesterday's winners: Tim Payne, by Star Ruby—Lady Bug, Lavator, by Salvo—Hot Springs, Homestead, by Candemas—Sweet Home.

Waterboy, by Watercress—Zealandia, Royal, by Candemas—Royal Falcon, Sacredus, by Montana—Angelique.

Waterboy is a son of Imp. Watercress, who has been one of Rancho del Paso's premier sires since his importation from England by Mr. Haggin in 1894. Imp. Watercress was foaled in 1859, and his racing career was prosecuted under the charge of that famous English trainer John Porter.

Mr. Haggin is a multi-millionaire, and his two breeding establishments are the finest in the world. The one at Elmendorf, seven miles north of Lexington, Ky., represents an investment of $1,000,000 outside of the stock, which consists of a dozen stallions and more than 400 brood mares.

His farm, the Rancho del Paso, in Southern California, covers an area of seventy-two square miles. There are 700 or 800 brood mares and twenty stallions on the farm.

So far the Aspirant, of W. A. Hanan, and Mimosa II., of Trencher II. Park, are even up for first position in the class of scoops. To-day these two youths crossed the line almost at the same time in a light northwest breeze. For nearly half a mile they sailed in position, and then Mimosa II. began taking to the shore and caught the wind ahead of her rival.

There was also a special race between the Mira, C. L. Poor, and the Hebe, H. Smithers, they crossing the line just eighteen seconds between them.

In the class for scoops, which sail a thirty-mile course, the starters were sent away in this fashion:

H. M. S.
Edlin, F. L. Redwaldt..... 12 35 07
Westmore, H. F. Lippitt..... 12 35 06
Lemley, F. M. Hoyt..... 12 35 07
Neola, G. M. Pynchon..... 12 35 07

The four youths sailed together in a bunch for a quarter of a mile. Then the Neola broke away from Edlin and Lemley and closed in on the Westmore. There were close starts in nearly every class. The challenge of ex-Congressman W. T. Poole and the effort, of which F. M. Smith is the owner, being only seconds apart at the start and they almost held the trophies for a quarter of a mile.
